The parties also jointly request that the discovery deadlines and dispositive motion deadlines be extended for the reason that the parties have encountered delays in proceeding with discovery due o scheduling conflicts arising from witness travel schedules, holiday conflicts, and other trial conflicts.

AFFIDAVIT OF RICHARD M. ROLLMAN

STATE OF ARIZONA     )
                                      )ss.
COUNTY OF PIMA     )

Richard M. Rollman, being first duly sworn upon his oath deposes and says:

1.     The current trial date in this matter is May 22, 2006. The trial is expected to last four days. The trial schedule will conflict with graduation of undersigned counsel's daughter from high school. Carrie Rollman will graduate from Catalina Foothills High School in Tucson, Arizona on May 25, 2006. Prior to graduation, she will participate in Awards Night on May 23, 2006, during which she is expected to receive awards for performance in high school.

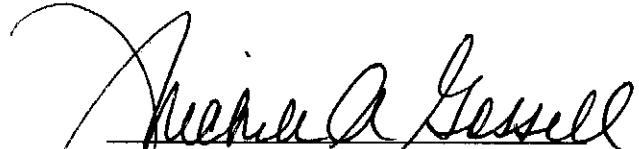

2.     I was not aware of these dates at the time the trial date was set. I believed graduation was scheduled for the prior week. I did not discover the conflict until this week as we began making plans and discovered graduation was scheduled one week later than we thought. I contacted my client, opposing counsel and filed this motion within two days of learning of the conflict.

3.     Undersigned counsel has conferred with counsel for plaintiff with respect to rescheduling the trial date. Plaintiff's counsel agrees that the request to reschedule trial is appropriate, will not prejudice plaintiff, and should be granted. Undersigned counsel has also disclosed the scheduling conflict with his client, who has agreed that the trial of this matter should be rescheduled in order to avoid the conflict with graduation.

Further affiant sayeth naught.
